One week from today I'll be heading from Boston to Washington D.C. & Rockville for the annual CFUN conference, appropriately named CFUN04 this year. Its an 8 hour drive on a Friday night, and the return home won't be until after midnight on Sunday, but this ColdFusion conference is definitely worth it and its growing every year. I've gone for the past 3 years, and I've written the game show questions for CF Jeopardy in 2002 and CF Celebrity Squares in 2003 used in that part of the event .

See you there!
