As a vibrant, active online Community of ColdFusion developers who largely interact online only, lets get together at Adobe MAX in Vegas to chat and network in person.

Members of the Online ColdFusion Meetup Group can meet at the MAX Community Lounge. If you're not already a member then join us! We could either have a free form networking meeting, or better yet, I'm thinking that we could do a type of speed-networking type of meeting where we'll seat people in two rows (or something similar) and each pair of people will talk for 5 minutes and then we'll all shift seats by one position to speak for 5 minutes with the next person, and so on.

I first saw this speed-networking idea on Alan Williamson's blog entry Do We Still Need Conferences? where Stephen Moretti linked to this site that contains a Google video of how it works: <http://www.dott07.com/go/dott-blog>

PLEASE INDICATE IN YOUR RSVP IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO TRY SPEED-NETWORKING OR FREE FORM.

The time of 5:30-7:00 pm on Tuesday fits nicely into the conference agenda and doesn't seem to overlap with much else. See the links for the Agenda and the Community Lounge here:
